

Babindák-Juhász-Papesch-Pettik

Quartet

Péter Papesch began playing bass guitar at the age of 21 as a self-taught musician. He collaborated in India with Ilaiyaraaja, the renowned film composer. His duo with accordionist Aleks Maslakov won first place in the jazz category and third place in the world music category at the Castelfidardo Accordion Festival in Italy.

Péter has performed in prestigious jazz clubs in cities like New York, Washington, Paris, Tokyo, and Stuttgart, and has appeared at the Montreal Jazz Festival with Besh o droM.

Gábor Juhász is a Budapest Award-winning jazz guitarist and composer who has also received the Gramofon and Artisjus awards, as well as the Aegon Award. Since 1990, he has been teaching, currently at the Bartók Conservatory's jazz guitar department. In 2021 and 2022, he was named Jazz Guitarist of the Year by the Hungarian Jazz Portal, based on critics' and audience votes.

In 2006, he founded the Juhász Gábor Trio and has performed with internationally renowned artists such as Archie Shepp, Palle Mikkelborg, Erik Truffaz, Randy Brecker, and Béla Szakcsi Lakatos.

Ádám Pettik is a percussionist and vocalist, best known as the founding member, frontman, and leader of Besh o droM, the first internationally significant world music band from Hungary. Before this, he collaborated with renowned musicians like Peter Ogi and Félix Lajkó.

As part of Besh o droM, Ádám contributed music to films by Miklós Jancsó and theater productions by Róbert Alföldi. He also developed a unique percussion instrument called the Peckdrum, which serves as a drum kit alternative. He plays this innovative instrument in the Babindák-Juhász-Papesch-Pettik Quartet.

István Babindák
Hailing from a talented Roma family in Csata, István Babindák moved to Hungary at a young age and quickly established his musical career. In 2015, he founded Valami Swing, a band that created its own style, blending hot jazz and cool swing. István frequently collaborates with violin virtuoso Roby Lakatos and was named Clarinetist of the Year in 2020 and 2021. He is also a composer for several theater productions, children's plays, and puppet shows.

WATCH OUR VIDEO

The Babindák-Juhász-Papesch-Pettik Quartet is a fresh addition to the jazz-world music scene. It's a seamless fusion of jazz and world music, performed side by side, intertwined, and layered in every imaginable way.

www.adampettik.com/bjpp-quartet

Booking: +3670 337 3030 info@adampettik.com

